

City View Designer Stunner Hits the Market

Posted on: 11/04/2018

City View Designer Stunner Hits the Market

There are not many homes that come along with the aesthetics of an art-centric retreat exhibit.

The design is another standout by architect Simon Cookes, with flair reflecting cutting edge and chic. With a string of A-list properties under his belt, Simon

The features are extensive and impressive with conversation piece elements striking a wow factor upon entry. Port Melbourne green glass flagons found intact in the property's dig are repurposed as remarkable entry lighting.

Titled the "Box House" the property boasts an impressive facade and dramatic angles and y

5km south-west of Melbourne's Central Business District, Port Melbourne is a meld of history

Another smile raiser is the sustainability factor of the DB Architecture property.

The Box House

features a rainwater tank, north facing decked balcony with garden features and full irrigation

"People perform best together. Architects should work with people, not against them." says the talented Architect.

For more information on this stunning property go to

<https://nextaddress.com.au/property/8-little-ingles-st-port-melbourne-vic-3207-14487>

<https://nextaddress.com.au/blog/city-view-designer-stunner-hits-the-market>