

Graphic Designer Casting A Spell On Homes Across Australia

Posted on: 29/06/2019

Our new series celebrating Australian artisans and tradespeople has been an inspiring hit and this month we would like to introduce you to Breen Hunter.

Breen is a talented graphic designer who has worked with some of Australia's biggest corporate names, but her passion is for creating art that brings joy to people's lives.

Her most recent success was a printed mural for a 9-year old's bedroom. This wall of colour and design made it impossible to look away.

One only needs to see her work to believe her passion. For this talented creative, art and design is a s

Artists such as Salvador Dali and Pablo Picasso spark her inspiration. Their ability to deliver quirky art

She says, "not only does art or design need to be visually pleasing, but it also needs to communicate a

Breen has a holistic approach to designing a wall piece. It begins with getting to know the personality of "Thought" and "quality" are the two most essential aspects of Breen's design process.

Without it, Breen would struggle to call it "design". With every job, the first step for Breen is to undertake

Putting in the time to really ensure her design is going to have an impact is an invaluable asset when she is commissioned to undertake a project.

In addition to this using quality materials and printing to ensure the most effective result is the next s

What could be more valuable to your home than a unique feature that tells a story and leaves the ho

To see find out more about Tanya Breen CLICK HERE

To find your Next Address- CLICK HERE

<https://nextaddress.com.au/blog/graphic-designer-casting-a-spell-on-homes-across-australia>