

Sell Your Own Home with Next Address

A Property Marketplace Bringing Affordability To The Selling Experience

More and more Australians are choosing to sell their own home. Smart online marketplace platforms like Next Address, are making it more accessible. Saving you time and money.

It's all about choice and control, choose from our DIY to full-service fee structure -no estate agent fees or commissions to pay.

Select the level of service, the fee package and payment plan that's right for you. Our onboarding system will guide you through the process. At Next Address, we know choice and control are vital to you.

You can also choose to use our additional services from managing inspections, engaging auctioneers or professional negotiators. Plus we are always a message or phone call away.

The Next Address Dashboard

Enjoy complete oversight and manage all activity and communication relating to the sale of your property. You will never be left waiting to hear if there are any interested buyers.

You will be able to:

- Communicate easily with all your buyer leads
- Coordinate inspections to suit you
- Oversee, manage and negotiate any 'Offers to Buy'
- Manage all the sales documents, i.e. Contracts of Sale, building inspections, valuation documents etc.

Next Address Moving Hub

We have an extensive range of partners able to assist you in all the different elements of the real estate journey. From helping you fund the cost of selling, find the right loan to arranging building inspections and conveyancing. We can even help with service connections and finding a removalist via our Moving Hub.

Getting the Right Valuation

Getting professional advice on the value of your home is vital. We work with the team at WBP Property Valuers and Greville Pabst Property Advisory Service to guarantee you independent information about your property and its worth.

If you are serious about selling, getting the right advice is vital to ensure success.

Online and NextReality3d Marketing

Our integrated virtual tours, high res photography and floor plans (NextReality3d) are a standard part of our offering - promoting your home in the best possible way. We also produce small property videos as standard features.

We know virtual tours have high viewer engagement rates. By viewing these a number of times buyers build up an emotional connection, resulting in physically inspecting the property. These are the buyers you want.

Your home is marketed on major national and international real estate portals as well as on relevant social media channels.
