

I love my house because I don't feel fenced in. My back veranda looks over paddocks and has great views across the country. the best part is it's like being in town, but out of town. The house manages to successfully blend the old with the new. A big bonus is the 2 bathrooms: complete with a wonderful bath to soak in! The kitchen is large and spacious with loads of natural light. An inspection is a must for this country gem
