

Premium acreage together with an architecturally designed home makes this a very enticing opportunity. This rural oasis, set on three acres (12,000sqm) has been carefully positioned and designed to take in the stunning views across the Central Highland plains. Views you will never lose. Even though it is only an easy 10-minute walk to the centre of the historic township of Clunes, the location of this property affords you absolute privacy. On entering the home, you immediately feel warm from the cathedral ceilings, exposed beams and natural light-filled rooms. The thoughtful floorplan has been conceived with a family in mind, with generous living zones which include a charming formal sitting room, family room, dining area and studio with its own entrance. There is also a second living zone. A feature wood log fire adds to the country appeal and of course, is complemented by a reverse cycle air-conditioner. There is versatile design makes the home ideal to be repurposed to include an office, studio or even Bed and Breakfast with its own separate entra...
